The prisoners of whom we spoke last week, broke jail on Sunday evening last, and made good their escape. There were four of them, and a reward of $50 each is offered by the Sheriff for their recovery.

We are greatly indebted to the gentlemanly operators in the Telegraph offices at Athens and Pomeroy, for the dispatches which we are able to give to our readers to-day. Long may they waive.

Turn Out

To the demonstration to-night. The Wide-Awakes, and everybody else, will be there. Let there be such an outpouring of the people as Pomeroy has never seen. Come prepared to enjoy the victory. Leave all jealousies-all bitter feelings-all partizan hatreds behind .-With joy and gladness-with good will to all men-with faith in the triumph of truth and right-with trust in the virtue, intelligence and progress of the people, come to the jubilec tonight! Let the ladies come and add by their presence and smiles to the joy of the occasion! Come one, come alt! and let the free air be freighted with the generous huzzas! of thousands of free voices! Come to the jubilee!

The Election in Ohio.

We have not been able to get anything like complete returns from the State at large. But enough has been received to warrant us in saying that the Republicans have triumphed by at least twenty thousand majority! This is an increase of some eight thousand over the majority for Governor last year. We will be able to give the full returns of the State in our next. Both wings of the Democracy were united on the State ticket, and the Bell party on a portion of it. But at the Presidential election, if each party runs an Electoral Ticket as they say they will. Lincoln's majority over the highest of the other candidates will not be less than seventy-five thousand! Mark the 'prediction! Evermore, Ohio will give her voice, and her arms if need be, for freedom, the Constitution and the

Never, in the history of political warfare, was a each House to form a quorum to do is said, are incapable of rising above the campaign conducted with such an utter disregard for truth and the common decencies of social life, as this; and the result, we trust, will teach them a lesson the morning of the 11th, leaving that that will not soon be forgotten.

will show the majority received by cach. procession, and speeches this (Friday) evening, at Pomeroy, to which everybody, is invited. Let the people rejoice. But in their joy, let it be remembered that for the glorious result, we are indebted to hundreds of earnest, honest men who have always heretofore, and many of whom will hereafter, act with empowering the Sergeant-at-Arms to for the safety of his Holiness; but the so-called Democratic party.
